

University of Tuzla

Bosnia and Herzegovina

Asst Prof Jasmina Smajic, MD, PhD

Belgrade, December 2017.

- ▶ established in 1976
- ▶ includes more than 50 study profiles
- ▶ organises and implements teaching-scientific process at undergraduate and postgraduate levels of study
- ▶ 13 faculties
- ▶ involving around 13.400 students, 741 academic and administrative staff members

-
- ▶ teaching is organized in three cycles, in line with the Bologna Process
 - ▶ offers study programs in bachelor, master's and doctoral studies
 - ▶ research, academic excellence, creative and critical approach are the central values of the University of Tuzla
 - ▶ The vision of the University of Tuzla is to conduct relevant activities within the integrated European higher education and research area.

Faculty of Medicine

- ▶ was established in 1976
- ▶ organizes and conducts classes from
 - biomedicine and health,
 - field of basic, clinical and public health sciences,
 - School of Medicine-general course, for acquiring the title of doctor of medicine,
 - the Department of Health study to acquire the title graduate medical technician / nurse, graduate physiotherapist, graduate engineer of medical laboratory diagnostics, graduate engineer of medical radiology and engineer of sanitary health

Faculty of Medicine

- ▶ organizes various forms of continuing medical education, independently or in cooperation with health care and other institutions or professional associations
 - ▶ after 40 years since the founding Faculty of Medicine has resources for all aspects of their activity and in particular the respected teaching and associate staff
 - ▶ Faculty of Medicine cooperates with the University Clinical Center (UCC) Tuzla, which provides great opportunities for the education of our students.
-

The role of Tuzla University in the project

- ▶ At Faculty of Medicine in Tuzla, there is no subject to which the students acquire wide knowledge about the epidemiology, physiology, assessment and treatment of pain
- ▶ Condition for improvement in quality of services in health institutions is the provision of adequate education in the field of pain medicine, as students in undergraduate study and a doctor in postgraduate study.
- ▶ Continuous education in pain medicine is necessary for all doctors at all levels of health care.

The role of Tuzla University in the project

- The staff that will participate in this project will advocate to implement the goals HEPMP:
 - ▶ raising awareness about the importance of pain medicine
 - ▶ to introduce pain medicine into the regular curriculum in Faculty of Medicine, organizing courses for doctors in primary health care, improvement of the functioning the existing and establishment of new centers for pain management

Tuzla University team in HEPMP

▶ Asst Prof Samir Husic, MD, PhD

University Clinical Center Tuzla,

Center for Palliative care

Faculty of Medicine-University of Tuzla

Head of Center for Palliative Care

Tuzla University team in HEPMP

▶ Asst Prof Zikrija Dostovic, MD, PhD

University Clinical Center Tuzla,

Neurology Clinic

Faculty of Medicine-University of Tuzla

Chief of Department for stroke

management

Tuzla University team in HEPMP

▶ Asst Prof Jasmina Smajic, MD, PhD

University Clinical Center Tuzla,

Anesthesiology and Resuscitation Clinic

Faculty of Medicine-University of Tuzla

Chief of ICU

ESA Council member

President of Society of Medical practitioners

Anesthesiologists-Reanimatologists in FB&H

Thanks for your attention

